

Dr. Donatas Murauskas – researcher and lecturer at the Faculty of Law of Vilnius University, the expert of the Vilnius Regional Biomedical Research Ethics Committee. In 2015 defended his dissertation: „Instrumental Approach of Courts: Legal Argumentation Based on Social Consequences of a Judgment”. Research areas: human rights and technology, court proceedings and legal arguments, constitutional law, the economic analysis of law. Has years of experience in the Supreme Administrative Court of Lithuania, was head of the Department of Representation of the Ministry of Justice of the Republic of Lithuania to the European Court of Human Rights, performed his duties as the Government's representative to the European Court of Human Rights. Has published 12 scientific articles in Lithuanian and foreign publications, has made presentations at international conferences and seminars in Germany, the Netherlands, Belgium, Hungary, Poland, Russia, Austria, Croatia, USA, lectured at the University of Krakow (Poland), University of Toulouse (France), in the summer program of the American Bar Association, for Charlotte School of Law (North Carolina, USA) students. Together with the University of Krakow, participated in the project funded by the Polish Ministry of Education and Science.